

Please don't allow the to past it will be very detrimental to National security Since Homeland protection is now training Ham ops for emergency communications as well as to the future electronic gadgetry that has stemed from amateur Radio. This will put us out of business...